

Husband and wife (Todd and Jingyu) album – boy/girl songs that parallel their own story of love-wreck, reboot, searching, meeting...

ANN ARBOR, MI — The singer-songwriting team of Todd and Jingyu are sharing their music by giving away all the songs for free at their website, ToddandJingyu.com. The songs took over 10 years to write and record. The title of this digital-release album is Find Me Find You: A Story.

The songs can be enjoyed individually but if one listens in order they tell a fully-integrated narrative on the theme of romantic relationship. The album parallels the artists' own story: both were love-wrecked... then breakdown... reboot... meeting and falling in love...

Navigating the Chinese/American cultural divide... embracing commitment and exploring universal ideas on relationship... aiming to go deeper.
